

PARAMOUNT AIRWAYS WINS ASIA HRD CONGRESS AWARD, 2009

Our Managing Director, Shri M. Thiagarajan is the proud recipient of the Asia HRD Congress Award for 2009, in a glittering ceremony held in Malaysia in May. The Asia HRD Congress Awards recognises and honours professionals who have demonstrably enriched and made a lasting impact on the human capital development in an organisation. Speaking on the occasion, Shri M. Thiagarajan said "I am delighted to receive this award on behalf of the Paramount family. I believe that no matter what the task in hand, sheer determination, teamwork and vision will see you through. In this respect, Paramount is proud to have created a dynamic environment. This will translate into renewed commitment to our Elite Travellers as we strive together to provide cost-effective service excellence, the factor that lies at the heart of the Paramount experience." The award is conferred on individuals known to practice the best Human Resource development policies, with the highest integrity that has a far-reaching, global impact. Awardees are recognised and honoured for introducing innovative systems and processes that have impacted employee productivity and bottom line. They have made a lifetime contribution to human resources development and continue to pioneer the cause.
